

_____ will be the ruin of education in our country. Students use these devices and then throw them away. The American values of thrift and frugality are being discarded. Banks and businesses will never allow such expensive luxuries.

Federal Teacher Magazine, 1950

Students today depend too much on ____.
They don't know how to use a ____ to sharpen a pencil. _____ will never replace the pencil.

National Association of Teachers, 1907

Students today depend on _____ too much. They don't know how to write on a _____ without getting _____ all over themselves. What will they do when they run out of _____?

Principals' Association, 1815

Students today can't prepare _____ to calculate their problems. They depend upon their _____ which are more expensive. What will they do when their _____ is dropped and it breaks? They will be unable to write.

National Teacher's Conference, 1790

Ballpoint pens will be the ruin of education in our country. Students use these devices and then throw them away. The American values of thrift and frugality are being discarded. Banks and businesses will never allow such expensive luxuries.

Federal Teacher Magazine, 1950

Students today depend too much on ink.
They don't know how to use a pen to sharpen a pencil. Pen and ink will never replace the pencil.

National Association of Teachers, 1907

Students today depend on paper too much. They don't know how to write on a slate without getting chalk dust all over themselves. What will they do when they run out of paper?

Principals' Association, 1815

Students today can't prepare bark to calculate their problems. They depend upon their slates which are more expensive. What will they do when their slate is dropped and it breaks? They will be unable to write.

National Teacher's Conference, 1790